La Pérouse (<https://www.hotel-la-perouse.com/>) is an emblematic hotel in Nice located directly on the coastline. The hotel dates back to the '30s when it was wedged into the cliffside, offering almost all guests unobstructed views of the Mediterranean – the hidden treasure of Nice! It's the kind of property that speaks for itself, with lush large rooms and balconies for soaking in that southern sunshine. La Pérouse is also home to an excellent terrace restaurant shaded under a lovely garden, as well as a cocktail bar. It's a classic choice and one that delivers as expected and is located just a short walk from the Promenade des Anglais.

Rooms average €468 during summer but go as low as €264 during the off-season.
