Couples seeking a romantic escape or families eager to embrace the buzz of Nice will enjoy the warm welcome of Hôtel La Pérouse Nice, an idyllic cliffside four-star boutique hotel near the Baie des Anges, port and Nice Old Town.

Situated between sea and sky, six floors above the buzz of Nice, the hotel has been beautifully renovated by the Friedmann & Versace Studio, with charming references to Picasso, Matisse, Dufy and Cocteau.

Nearly all 53 rooms boast stunning views over the Baie des Anges. Tasteful terraces are cut into Colline du Château (Castle Hill) and a balcony visit creates the feeling of being on board a ship. It was this sensation that inspired the hotel owner to name it after French naval officer and navigator Jean-François de Galaup, comte de Lapérouse.

For the ultimate stay, panoramic bay and town views, plus an oasis of comfort and luxury, try the spacious but also cosy Mediterranean Suite. In this space, effortless Niçois style helps create an earthly paradise. The luxe stay is complete with an outdoor jacuzzi, separate rain shower and sun lounges.

Be sure to pay a visit to the relaxing rooftop solarium, the crystal-clear pool dug out of rock (open April to October), and gardens rich with century-old lemon trees and fragrant jasmine.

Romance seekers mustn't miss the mesmerising sunset and seeing the city lights starting to shimmer, while enjoying an intimate dinner. Have a delicious meal in your room or stroll down to enjoy Le Patio garden restaurant.
