For the City Slicker

La Pérouse

Best For: Couples, families and groups who enjoy exploring the spirited neighborhoods of Nice's Old Town and the antique-shop district near the port, but who want a berth near the beach.

Vibe: Stylish urban oasis, relaxed

Where to Eat: The hotel's charming indoor/outdoor Le Patio, surrounded by lemon trees, serves excellent Mediterranean-style specialties. Across the street at the water's edge, try the recently opened and elegant seafood haunt, Les Bains du Castel.

Top Tips: Take advantage of Nice's effervescent art scene and plan a visit to the Chagall Museum and the Matisse Museum. Pick up olive oil, soap, dried herbs and hip streetwear in the labyrinthic alleyways of Vieux Nice, then head to the city's Golden Triangle, a short stroll away, for serious brand-name shopping.
